NEW RESIDENCE FOR THE PASTOR

Sacred Heart Church Will Build in Near Future.

WANT HOTEL IN MANCHESTER

This Is One of the Pressing Needs of the City-Agitation for More Police-Interest in Municipal Campaign. Personals and Briefs.

Manchester Bureau, Richmond Times, (No. 1102 Hull Street.

Plans for the building of the residence for the paster of Sacred Heart Church, Rev. Father Waters, are being made, and the Catholics of the city hope soon to see a building second to none for their pastor. The building will be erected on the site of the old school building, this being moved to the rear of the church as a hall and class-room for members of the church. The building will be an ornament to the city.

Rev. Father Waters is anxious to become a resident of Manchester and to

He now lives in Richmond and comes over here to fill his appointments. School will be opened in the new building in a short time, and then the work on this residence will be started.

CAPITALISTS TALK.

An article recently published in The

An article recently published in The Times referring to the absolute need of a hotel in the city has put many people to thinking and discussing the advisability of the erection of a good hotel for the accommodation of the people who do business over here, and are forced to go to Richmond to board. The running of a new road into the city and connecting this place with Fetersburg will make the necessity for a hotel much more pressing, and from a talk with several capitalists it is safe to say that within the next six months one will be under erection. Merchants generally are lookerection. Merchants generally are loading forward to the time when this road will be completed and connection with the Cockade City be made quick and direct. A goodly number of citizens who live between here and Petersburg will come into the city to trade, and for the time that the cars will stop here it is safe to presume that a good majority of them will trade here. Officers of the rca6 would doubtless stay in the city were there suitable public accommoda-tions, and it behooves those interested in the welfare of Manchester to try and start a hostelry that will be a credit to

The costumes were in many instances very orignal, and altogether made a very ridiculous and pleasing scene to behold. Interest has by no means lagged in the election for city officials to be held in the spring, and within the coming week the spring, and within the coming week no less than five candidates will come out for different offices. For City Ser-geant, there will be a hot race, each candidate having a host of friends. The result is uncertain. Mr. J. G. Saunders will make a good run, and is an opponent to be feared. Mr. W. D. Furguson will be "in at the finish," and Mr. G. A. Carr will make some of them very uneasy. All three men are active, strong Demo-crats, and have been in campaigns until they know exactly what to do. Mr. Saunders is now a member of the City Council, and has served his people well. There will be other candidates to split the vote, and a hot time is promised. For Commonwealth's attorney and for Commonwealth's attorney and for the Mayoralty, there will be warm contests. Every citizen is looking forward to the election and speculating on the

NEED OF MORE POLICE.

The recommendation of Mayor Maurice to the City Council for an increase in the number of the police force has met with hearty approbation by the citizens. The recent robberies committed in nearly every part of the town and the inability of the present force to properly patrol the limits of the city at night was the cause of the Mayor asking for more police. There are only four policemen in the city, and at night, with one at the station, there can be but one to look out for the interests of the people. Mayor Maurice has been twice visited by the thieves, and once he was robbed of con-
